EDMONTON BULLETIN FEB. 28th, 1902

BRITISH JUSTICE.

Among the hundreds of American citizens who came to Alberta last spring were two young men, one completely the other comparatively, unknown to this side the line. Shortly after one of the men returned to the States alone. Some time later in a sparsely settled part of the country near Battle Lake the body of an unknown man was found buried in a shallow grave. The body was partially decomposed and no clue was apparent of any importance.

Corp. Hetherington, of the N. W. M. P., took up the case and following the slender threads of evidence at hand found the facts above stated and was led to the conclusion that the body was that of the unknown American. For months he ransacked the Western States in search of additional evidence and finally arrested in a western town the companion of the unknown man. The prisoner was brought to Alberta and witnesses from Southern Alberta, from Michigan and Wyoming. The culmination of the case was the sentence of death passed on C. B. Bullock, to be fulfilled on the 26th of the coming month.

The pursuit and punishment of the murderer is not more creditable to the ingenuity and perseverance of Corp. Hetherington than to the spirit of justice which backs up Canadian officers in the detection and punishment of crime. The faint clues first apparent might have been made an excuse for passing over the affair as 'one of the unsolvable mysteries. The vindication of the vigilance and perseverance of British Justice is the fact that when those clues had been traced to their conjunction they were found to weave an unbreakable network of condemnation.

Neither was the action of that justice stayed or swayed by the fact that victim and murderer were citizens of a foreign country who had but recently entered Canada with the evident intention of inspecting the advantages of the country. The offence was committed on Canadian soil and the Canadian government undertook the responsibility and expense of the punishment.

THE WEAPONS OF JEALOUSY.

The following ingenious effusion recently adorned the editorial column of the "Ward County Reporter," the exponent of the material and immaterial advantages of the Upper Mouse River Valley, South Dakota:

"The Langdon Democrat has received for publication in its columns a letter written by an ex-Cavalier county resident who has made his home in the Canadian Northwest for several years, in which he writes that the chief crop around Edmonton is oats, which yields from 65 to 100 bushels per acre. Wheat seldom ripens on low land. The soil is a very light black loam with a jumbo of heavy clay bottom. The timber is poplar or willow. A large per cent of the cattle die every winter. The supposed cause is the water, which all over this country contains much alkali. There is not a well in the town of Edmonton that contains water fit for household or cooking purposes. The water is hauled from the Saskatchewan and sells at the rate of six barrels for $1. Horses have died here by the hundreds this season. Potatoes seldom ripen, onions cannot be raised for winter use. Hail storms are numerous and severe all through this section. Ten inches of snow fell Sept. 21, and at that time over 40 per cent of the crop was uncut. The market price of oats ranges from 14 to 24¢ per bushel, wheat from 28¢ to 50¢. Farm machinery costs 60 per cent more than it does in North Dakota."

[The talented author of the foregoing paragraph should retire from the hardships of this awful land to the sunny slopes of the valley of the Upper Mouse.

The frequency with which articles of the stripe of the foregoing have appeared in papers published in the Northern States is most conclusive evidence that the fame of Alberta is not limited by the boundary line. The superior advantages offered by Alberta have drawn thousands of citizens from the central and western states and will draw still more largely from the population of those States during the next few years.

It is but a natural anticipation that this movement should be regarded in no friendly spirit by the journalists whose prosperity depends on the density of the population of the States in question. Some rural journals of the Dakotas and neighboring states are winning for themselves a reputation to which they are welcome by a campaign of unprincipled hostility toward a superior region.

B. C. Legislature in Session.

The session of the British Columbia legislature opened on Thursday last week.

Among the subjects to be dealt with as indicated in the speech from the throne are:

A redistribution measure; the encouragement of immigration; the Butte Inlet-Yellow Head Pass railway project and the taxation question.

PROHIBITION AND POLITICS.

Discussing the referendum in the Manitoba legislature last week Hon. Colin Campbell, attorney general of Manitoba said:

"It is necessary to elevate this question above mere party politics. If you are going to get prohibition you must get it apart from politics."

Mr. Campbell is neither the only nor the first Canadian politician who has grown anxious lest the splendor of this moral movement should become dimmed by contact with politics. Canadian politicians, Dominion and provincial, have been unanimous in the resolve to permit prohibition to occupy quarters considerably distant from the legislative halls in which they labored. The history of the prohibition movement in Canada has been a record of successive elevations from spheres in which its presence might prove dangerous to the vested interests of politicians. The sole exception to the rule was made by the late premier of Manitoba, who chose the easier course of removing himself from the sphere from which he could not foist the prohibition movement. Canadian politicians have not matured that spirit of friendship for prohibition which makes them contented inhabitants of a region infected therewith.

The fountain of this ardent passion to avoid proximity to prohibition is the knowledge that to keep prohibition out of the field of politics is to keep it out of the range of the possibilities. So long as the prohibition question does not rise in the public estimation to the level of tariff considerations and bridge building, so long will prohibitory measures occupy an impotent and inoffensive place in the catalogue of unpassed legislation.

THE TOWN'S FINANCES.

The annual financial statement of the town of Edmonton has been issued and copies are being distributed. The year just closed completed the first decade of the town's history and as explained in the preface the statement is consequently made more comprehensive than usual, in order that a clear idea may be given not only of the financial history of the year, but of the financial record of the town since its incorporation and also of our present financial standing. The several reports are endorsed by the municipal auditor whose report is also included in the statement. In this report auditor Stephen says:

"I find the business of the town conducted along sound financial lines. The taxes for the year have been collected in accordance with the ordinance, the amount outstanding ($501.00) being represented by the property of non-residents, of which no portion is collectable by distress. The amount of arrears standing in your books, now amounting to $2,661.14, is a comparatively small sum for four years business and this is readily collectable by the ordering of a tax sale for this year."

"The manipulation of the sinking fund monies so that the estimated results have been practically attained, is sufficient proof that this part of the financial business of the town has been well and carefully conducted. Legislation enabling the town to purchase its own debentures for local improvements bearing five per cent per annum, with sinking funds heretofore lying in the savings bank at three per cent, has proved of decided benefit and is being well utilized."

The total receipts for the year 1901, were $82,009.99. Of this amount $1,290.43 remained on hand at the beginning of the year. The sum of $30,000 was borrowed during the year from the Imperial Bank. The tax collections amounted to $29,651.01 and arrears collected amounted to $8,066.12. Interest on loans and other matters yielded a revenue of $3,006.42 and market fees, pound fees and rental of council chamber $447.35. The balance of the receipts came from the sale of special tax debentures ($1,598.78), general tax debentures ($4,000.00), interest on debentures and sundry sources of minor importance. The debentures sold were really purchased by the sinking fund, which otherwise would have lain in the bank at 3 per cent. The expenditure amounted to $76,848.88, the amount remaining on hand at the close of the year being $5,152.11. The debenture coupons redeemed during the year totalled $438.77. Notes were paid amounting to $36,394.52. Interest absorbed $9,650.02. The civic freight and express charges amounted to $154.42. Our local improvements cost $1,298.00 and $4,162.00 were paid on general expenditure, including the purchase of the new market site and the services of civil engineers. The demand of the Protestant public school board was $5,500 and St. Joseph's Roman Catholic separate school $1,500. The levy for the general tax sinking fund was $1,788.40 and for the special tax fund $1,818.74. Current expenses under the authority of the finance committee amounted to $3,610.21. The board of works spent $2,479.17 in street repairs, crossings, ditching, etc. The expenditure under the head of fire, water and light amounted to $3,068.21. License and police expenses, including salaries, clothing, drug and day tags, and pound expenditures used up $2,075.30. The expenses in connection with the hall and market were $1,352.72. The freight and express charges agent $408.70 during the year in various ways connected with the safety of the public health.

The statement of revenue shows the income for the year as $14,788.98, the outlay being $14,435.58, leaving a surplus for the year of $354.35.

The current assets, including cash on hand, real estate available for government, real estate available for sale, local improvement (debentures to be issued), general debenture expenditure (debentures to be issued), and arrears of taxes, sum up to $14,238.88. The several liabilities, comprised of bills payable and debenture interest assets amount to $59,177.08, and the capital liabilities to $2,080.51. The balance shows a surplus of assets over liabilities of $214.37.

The total amount of tax debentures outstanding, less the payments made thereon is $70,125.57. The amount of general tax sinking fund is $15,400.50, the earnings of which for the year were $597.81.

The special tax debentures outstanding amount to $31,933.96. The special tax sinking fund amounts to $10,288.22, the earnings of the fund for the year being $688.47.

The town holds real estate of the assessed value of $2,827.00, the actual value being probably considerably in excess of this amount.

The unclaimed surpluses remaining from the several tax sales held during the history of the town amounts to $111.34.

A table of statistics appended to the statement gives some interesting figures, exhibiting the rapid progress of the town. The assessed valuation in 1902, the year of incorporation was $673,694, the taxes levied thereon, aside from school taxes being $6,200.07. Last year the net assessment was $1,365,912.00, on which the total taxes levied for all purposes were $33,889.11.

SCOTTISH KINEMATOGRAPH COMPANY.

Qu-Appelle Progress.

The Scottish Kinematograph Co., as was expected, were received by a bumper house last Friday. Their concert throughout was above the ordinary concerts and the artists were all high class. The first half of the programme consisted of a rendition of Scottish songs and music by the Misses Malcolm, Burnett and Thompson. The violin and mandolin playing of Miss Thompson being highly appreciated. The main attractions of the programme, Miss Thompson is an artist and her rendering of "Wardings from the Hills" and "Sprigs of Heather" will long be remembered by the music lovers of Qu-Appelle. Miss Malcolm and Miss Burnett were also received, being repeatedly encored. The Kinematograph added its share to the success of the entertainment. Financially and as regards the entertainment was an unequalled success.

Mr. Oliver in the South.

MacLeod Gazette.

Frank Oliver, M. P., arrived in town on Tuesday on the north train, and in the afternoon was interviewed by a committee representing the town council and one representing the Mac-Leod board of trade.

The main object of the interview with Mr. Oliver was in connection with the application for a railway charter to the boundary line being made by the Calgary and Edmonton Ry. Co. and another unknown company. The delegation from the council presented a resolution of that body demanding that any charter granted should contain a clause requiring the company to put up a station, etc., within certain defined limits in the town of Mac-Leod. The board of trade committee presented practically the same request and a further demand that the road
should be built to Cardston this year.

Mr. Oliver desired the position of the people of MacLeod to be clearly defined. Did they wish the charter opposed unless these demands were accorded to? The reply was most enthusiasticly yes. Mr. Oliver stated that, if we failed to secure an agreement with the company to the above effect, he would require the town to instruct him to do so. In writing as to what it desired him to do.

Mr. Oliver was then asked if he knew the cause of the delay in building the road. He intended going to Blainmore before finally proceeding to Ottawa.

The Alberta Star, Cardston.
Mr. Frank Oliver, M. P., arrived in town on MacLeod about 4:30 p. m., on Wednesday last. Mr.
Oliver came here on invitation from the board of trade, who desired to presented the wants of the citizens and receive replies relative to the advances of certain lands. Mr. Oliver tarrying at the Wool Hotel for a few moments, he proceeded to the upstairs room of the Assembly Hall where a large number of the board of trade were gathered to meet him. After an information had been given to all present, accompanied by a hearty hand-shake, Mr. Oliver proceeded to the board of trade, where he was met by President Thos. Duce in the chair.

A few words of welcome from the chairman, and then the reading of a very interesting report by the secretary of the board of trade. Mr. Oliver answered all questions with that tact, judgment and deliberation thought which characterized him at all times, and fits him for his present duties in governmental affairs. No "jumping at conclusions" without a careful investigation; no calling garlands from rhetoric to paint word pictures, but plain, simple, hard facts in common Anglo-Saxon rendition. His words of counsel, answers to questions inspires confidence in his ability, and assurance in his faithfulness.

Speaking of the sales of Indian lands, he proposed the purchase of them from the government. Come before the government and give them a straight bid for such land as you want. The government can then contract with the Indians knowing that the land will be disposed of for cash, and the Indian should be given the interest in cash on the capital such sales produce. The Indians want cash, and you want land, so a simple business transaction should take place in a business way. Mr. Oliver further suggested, speaking of the railroad project, that money not being too plentiful, it would probably be best to ask only for bonus for one road. The C. & E. extension was discussed and thoroughly as to the St. Mary's River railroad. Just what his instructions will be cannot now be determined, owing to the time involved in the board of trade desired to hold a special meeting and then reach some definite understanding. One spoke of length upon the St. Mary's River railroad, which was to be given the priority if it was to be a "sure go" with a stipulation in its charter compelling it to work for Cardston within one year after the grant was made. Some were in favor of taking out the "block" now under the wheels of the St. Mary's River railroad and allowing that branch to come on to the bridge.

Relative to the erection of a public building by the government Mr.
Oliver expressed his opinion that the building was universally accepted. A building estimated between $5,000 and $7,000 will suffice to accommodate for the present.

Public Works Report.

This report of the department of public works, Ottawa, for the year ending June 30th, 1901, has been issued and from it the following information is taken:

"The revenue of the year 1900-1 has amounted to $112,675.82, the increase over the year 1899-1900 being $33, 694.55. The revenue of the department is mainly derived from the department of works constructed for the descent of timber on the Ottawa, St.
Maurice and Trent rivers, and from the various locks at Lewiston, Kingston and Esquimaux. In each case this has increased in notable proportions. The excess over the returns of the year 1899-1900 are as follows, namely:
Ottawa district, $4,579.72;
St. Maurice district, $3,664.67;
Newcastle district, $12,068.62;
Esquimaux graving dock, $5,687.93;
Lewiston graving dock, $7,068.83;
Kingston graving dock, $5,565.65.
A total increase, as above, $38, 594.35.

The expenditure of the department during the year under review has amounted to $4,699,680.54, an excess over the preceding year of nearly $1, 000,000, the expenditure in question being divided as follows:
Harbors, dredgings, bridges, $2,670,146.82;
Public buildings, $1,303,411.70;
Telegraphs, $32,626.58;
Miscellaneous, salaries, etc., $199,495.44.

Shipping Wheat.

A peculiar feature in connection with the present grain blockade on the C. P. R. is the fact that several dealers have transhipped wheat from the C. P. R. to the C. N. at this point. In order to do so they have had to haul the wheat by teams from one railroad to the other. This course was rendered necessary from the fact that the C. P. R.
positively refuse to accept shipments of wheat for points in the east. A.
Kelly & Co., transhipped a number of cars to the C. N. in this manner this week.—Brandon Times.

Manitoba's Referendum.

Hon. Colin Campbell in a lengthy speech outlined the policy of the Hob-bin administration regarding the prohibition question and announced that:
The vote will be taken on March 27
next, and the prohibition act will come into force on June 1, if any of the three following conditions are fulfilled:
1. If 45 per cent of those on the list
vote in favor of the act;
2. If 60 per cent on the voters' list vote, and 60 per cent thereof vote
in favor;
3. If the vote falls below 60 per cent than a percentage between 60 per cent and 66-2-3 per cent will be taken.

ANNUAL BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

The annual general meeting of the board of trade was held in the council chamber at 10:30 a. m. yesterday, there being a good attendance of members. Being President Gariepy presided. The minutes of the last annual general meeting were read and adopted.

The following communication was read from the Toronto board of trade: "We are in receipt of the report of the annual general meeting of the board of trade held on the 12th inst., the following resolution was unanimously adopted: 'Whereas according to the press dispatches it is the intention of the Imperial parliament to assess the duties on imports from the various additional taxes caused by the war in South Africa, and the large war in the British navy, and in addition to the products which may be amongst other products which may be taxed, wheat has been especially mentioned, therefore be it resolved that in the opinion of this board, any tax placed by Great Britain upon products similar to those produced in this country should be so levied as to grant a preference to the products produced within the empire.'

"In view of the position so strongly urged by this board for many years, for a preferential treatment of the different products of the empire, and Canada having granted a tariff preference on the products of Great Britain when imports from this country, one of the points being that Germany has discriminated in her tariff against us, by imposing practically prohibitory duties on the wheat and other foodstuffs from this country, thus closing a market to our farmers;

"Therefore be it resolved that in the opinion of this board, any tax placed by Great Britain upon products similar to those produced in this country should be so levied as to grant a preference to the products produced within the empire."

"That if Great Britain could see her way to adopt such a policy, it would result in the knitting together of the various parts of the empire, and thus materially strengthen and improve the position of the then colonies, a large portion of the emigration from the United Kingdom now goes to the United States, and if placed elsewhere, with the wheat and other foodstuffs required could be entirely supplied within the empire."

"And that copies of this resolution be sent to the premier of Canada, and to the Honorable Joseph Chamberlain, colonial secretary, Lord Curzon, Viceroy of India, and the premier of Australia and New Zealand, and to forward them the full text of the resolution by mail."

"Further that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the different boards of trade and commercial bodies in Canada, and that they be requested to pass similar resolutions and forward them to the proper authorities, and will you kindly bring this matter to the attention of your board, and advise us of any action that may be taken at your early convenience."

The meeting unanimously endorsed the action of the Toronto board of trade, and the secretary was instructed to write the board to that effect.

The name of Mr. Samuel Paton was added to the list of members. The secretary then read the financial statement for the year, as follows: March 10th, by cash on hand, $100.55; Feb. 28th, by 77 paid members, $85.00.

W. J. Richardson reported verbally having audited the accounts of the board and found them correct. A motion was made for the adoption of the report, Messrs. Lines and Picard moved its amendment that the signed report of the auditor be laid on the table before the motion be passed. Mr. McCall explained the customary procedure in auditing the accounts of small corporations as consisting merely in the certificate by the auditor of the correctness of the cash book. The secretary then read the cash book, duly certified by the auditor, Mr. Lines' amendment was withdrawn and the original motion passed.

The secretary then read the following address from the retiring president which was received with applause:

To the Members of the Edmonton Board of Trade: It is nearly one year ago since we had our last annual meeting, at which you re-elected me as president in honor, I deeply felt at the time and have ever since, I am foreseen, the past year, 1901, has been an important one in the history of the board.

We have had to deal with a multiplicity of business, extending from Peace river and the Mackenzie River, to the west, and north of Edmonton, both of which districts are vital to the present and future welfare of our town, owing to the increasing volume of trade we do with them.

It will not be long before the Peace river will be opened up for settlement, and communication be had between here and there with a railway, instead of as at present.

At the moment, the Roman Catholic mission have on the way to Peace river, a fine steamer, which will be in service, and shipped from there in sections, and transhipped from here with men.

The Peace river, as you are aware, is a magnificent stream, having been for six and seven hundred miles of undisturbed navigation. The placing of the first steamer on it, marks a new era in the development of the Canadian Northwest.

The H. B. Co. are also showing great enterprise by sending in, as they have done this winter, one of the latest roller process flour mills, electricity and the plant went in at the same time as the mill machinery. Canada's other portion of the Dominion can say that hundreds of miles from the line of railway the same enterprise is being shown.

It is known as the Mackenzie River Basin is a region rich in fish and fur, and various kinds of minerals so far underdeveloped, and more and more being learned yearly of these values to the enterprising traders of the north.

The board has been in correspondence with nearly all important boards of trade, from Halifax, on the Atlantic, to Victoria on the Pacific.

The Crops.

This yield of oats, wheat, barley, flax, hay and vegetables during the year 1901, I might say as is usual in the Edmonton district, was immense, and were unsurpassed on the whole continent of America so far as I can learn.

Our district was visited during the whole spring and summer with a good deal of rain, but the fall turned out to be splendid for harvesting and threshing operations. We have not had enough snow for hauling grain to market as freely as we might desire, but the settlers have made the most of it, using wagons principally and have done well.

The Territorial government this year prepared statistics which show that Alberta has raised about 8,000,000 bushels of wheat, oats and barley, at least 7-8ths of which was grown within a radius of one hundred miles of our town.

Live Stock.

Our settlers are doing wonders in improving the grades of the different classes of live stock. They have imported freely thoroughbred and purebred cows, sheep, pigs, and poultry, also. All that they have been doing owing to the fact that they have a splendid cash market for everything of the kind. The fame of Alberta's winter fed steers has spread well and therefore outsiders now make regular trips to purchase.

The Growth of the District.

To show how our district is growing in settlement, our secretary, Mr. Harrison, instructed to ask Mr. Harrison, the agent for Dominion lands, if he would kindly let us know what was the number of new homestead entries from Jan. 1st, 1901, to 20th Feb. 1902, and he has kindly sent a memo showing that during the period mentioned there were the large number of 1,945 homesteads, an average of about 900 acres per working day, entered for at Edmonton. In addition to this many thousands of acres of land were sold by the Canadian Pacific railway land agent and also thousands of acres of land sold off half-ried scrip warrants. I think it is safe to say that to other portions of the Canadian Northwest is progressing so rapidly as Northern Alberta.

Our Markets.

Forseeing that we were likely to have a glut of oats, the board started in July last, to find out if something could not be done with the surplus we knew we were going to have. First we got forms printed and sent a copy to every school board, within a radius of 100 miles of Edmonton, asking for the names of the settlers in each school district, and the number of acres and estimated yield per acre of their oats, wheat and barley. We received answers from about 60 per cent of the trustees.

While waiting for the returns, we wrote the Hon. the minister of agriculture, Ottawa, also got Mr. Oliver, M. P., to kindly interest himself and he did everything possible to further the marketing of the Imperial government if Alberta could not furnish some of the oats required in South Africa.

There was quite a little correspondence, and a number of council meetings of the board held, and finally we got a telegram from Professor Robertson, Ottawa, asking to have delegates meet here in Calgary. The result was that he entered into an agreement with the grain dealers to purchase 500,000 bushels of oats for South Africa. In addition to this the Canadian Pacific railway company could not furnish sufficient cars to get the total shipment made in time.

Looking to the future, at the council meeting of the board held on Monday morning, the 17th inst., it was decided that communication should be opened up with the boards of trade of Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and Portland, pointing out the fact we are only some 800 miles from the coast, and that Alberta this year had about eight million bushels of oats. The result was that the board of trade of the British Columbia ports almost nil. As far as carrying the grain to the coast, the British Columbia ports almost nil. As far as carrying the grain to the coast, the British Columbia ports almost nil. As far as carrying the grain to the coast, the British Columbia ports almost nil.

Railway Matters.

Owing to the strike on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, last spring, the large rain fall, the difficult kind of work and trouble about getting laborers, the extension of the railway from Strathcona to Edmonton, was not completed last fall as we all hoped and expected. However, I am happy to say that by the end of next month, or certainly by the middle of April, we will have the trains running into our town.

The grading, with exception of about 200 yards, is completed. The ties are spread along the grade and the rails are on the ground.

On the 20th of August the board met Professor McLean, Dominion freight, to discuss the grievances of the freight and passenger commission, and laid before him a statement of grievances both freight and passenger. While possibly not as complete as it might have been, it served the purpose.

Several times during the year prominent C. P. R. officials visited our town, and many matters relating to the interests of the town and country were brought to their notice by the council and members of the board.

I am pleased to say that at one of the interviews, the question of the merchants was gone thoroughly into, and Edmonton was placed on the same footing as other towns enjoying this privilege.

The strike on the main line last spring prevented all communication from Calgary north for some 12 days, which was a serious loss to the whole country. The strike should be done by the Dominion government to compel all railways to at least run the passenger and mail trains when a strike is on.

In consequence of the C. P. R. not being able to furnish the cars to complete the South African oat contract, it leaves a surplus on hand. This surplus has been pointed out to the company and a cheaper rate of freight asked for, from now on, to all points in Ontario and the other eastern provinces.

The C. P. R. have also been written to pointing out the fact that we have a lot of seed oats on hand, and asking that the same rates be granted from here, to the east, or west, as is now granted seed grain coming in.

Repeated representations have been made to the honorable, the postmaster general about there not being a mail and clerk, on every day morning; the inconvenience and injustice has been pointed out by every town along the Calgary and Edmonton railway. So far nothing has been received. It is something that should be attended to at once by the Dominion government.

Industrial Exhibition.

The Edmonton Industrial Exhibition Association held its annual fair last summer, and had it not been for the railway strike, at the time the fair was on, several hundred more people would have been in attendance daily. A good exhibit of live stock was made and some good prizes paid for the best animals. This association will be the means through its annual fair of encouraging live stock being brought in, and letting the settlers know which of their neighbors have good stock and also allow outside breeders to bring in stock, and sell it at the time of the fair.

Port of Entry.

The honorable, the minister of customs has been written to, asking that Edmonton be made a regular port of entry for customs. The completion of the railway into Edmonton makes it more than ever imperative that this should be done with as little delay as possible.

Grain Standards Board.

At the time Northern Alberta was filling the contract for oats in South Africa, the Western Grain Standards board made a new grade for Alberta oats alone, they did not make it so that it applied either to Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Saskatchewan, which left no other implication than that Alberta alone had any, or was shipping any, but damaged grain. You are aware our board took active measures to point out the injustice. We brought the matter before the grain board at Winnipeg, and also before the board of trade of that city, the ministers of trade and commerce, and agriculture and the press. There was also a public meeting held in Edmonton and resolutions sent the government on the subject.

Our board has now asked the honorable the minister of trade and commerce to place not less than two representatives on the Western Grain Standards board from Alberta.

Last season was not a very favorable one for gold washing on our river, owing to the unusually high water, notwithstanding which the Saskatchewan Gold & Platinum Dredging Syndicate and also the Alberta Dredging Syndicate kept their large dredges working as steadily as possible, and with it, it is understood, satisfactory results.

It is said that four more large dredges will be put on our river in the near future, by the same syndicates.

Washing by hand miners was less the past season than for years before. There was much a demand for labor that men who used to wash for gold did not do so, making good wages elsewhere.

Coal mining is creating more interest all the time and will shortly become one of the principal industries of our district. The Territorial government have an efficient and energetic mine inspector, in the person of Mr. F. B. Smith, from whom it is learned that all mine owners must now keep a registered plan showing the coal mines operated by them. This is a move in the right direction.

Openings for Capital.
Enquiries having been received as to investment. I beg to point out that there is so much scope for the investment of capital in this town, both in their initial stage of development, that investors should come here and investigate for themselves.

One can mention some which I consider good, namely: Town and country property; a good brewery; a pulp mill; a soap factory; a paper mill for building and tar paper; rope works; as we are growing a lot of flax; binder twine factory, &c., &c.

Progress of Edmonton.
The past year has seen our town make wonderful strides. A large number of substantial dwellings, and business places have been built, as well as a fine school house, which is valued at $30,000, built of solid brick, now in course of erection. The new solid brick Presbyterian church is just about completed. The Roman Catholic church was finished last fall.

The Dominion government have purchased land joining the town for the purpose of erecting a jail.

During the year a number of important industries have been put in operation, or arrangements made to do so, among which are Ross & Anderson's splendid brick yard and machinery.

J. B. Little is introducing new and improved machinery for his brick yard.

A carding mill is now in active operation.

A steam laundry has been recently started.

The town council have given a bonus to a woollen mill to be erected this spring.

Mr. W. A. Brewster has put a large addition to his machine shop and added a foundry plant, which is filling a want long felt. Some very large castings have already been turned out.

The Gallagher-Hull Pork Packing Co. keep on improving their premises. A new firm of pork packers are actively engaged in business and have formed into a joint stock company, known as the Vogel Pork Packing Co., Ltd. Both of these companies are doing an extensive trade and assist very materially in the development of the town and country.

W. H. Clarke has erected a large saw and door factory.

John Walter, has increased the output of his saw mill very largely.

D. R. Fraser & Co. are putting in new machinery into their saw mill.

Future of Edmonton.

Not only the town, but the whole Edmonton district has as bright a future before it, as any in the Dominion.

The old residents of Edmonton have stood nobly by it, fighting against every kind of odds. Its board of trade from its inception, like the Winnipeg board of trade, has had to work, not only in the interest of the town, but also the whole country adjacent to it, and it has conscientiously well have its members worked for the common good. An active board of trade is one of the best organizations that any place can have.

Is there much still for it to do? Yes. Its initial work is about over, but commencing this year, 1902, more important work than ever almost will crop up. This year it will have its first railway connection, next year, 1903, will see it part of the main line of the Canadian Northern railway, which is under construction to the coast. It is said that the Canadian Pacific railway will either reach here about the same time, or some after possibly before. The Calgary & Edmonton railway now have engineers out to make the connection from MacLeod to the Calgary.

(Mr. J. H. Hill's road) in Montana. It is hard to foresee what this all means. Is Edmonton not destined to become a railway centre, such as Winnipeg is to-day?

An American syndicate has purchased a site for the erection of a large saw mill and saw works on the most valuable timber limits on the Saskatchewan river. They purpose rafting their logs down to the mill here when it is completed.

Edmonton still retains its position as the raw fur market of the Dominion. Reports now coming in show that the year 1902 promises a big catch.

Merchants all over the district report this winter's trade as being one of the best known.

Before closing I have to call the attention of the Dominion government to the fact that so far nothing whatever seems to have been done by it, re a court house and the appointment of a resident judge.

There is also the question of an experimental farm, the necessity for which always existed and is becoming more so daily. A good move has been made by the government's decision to open up a part of the Stony Plain Indian reserve for settlement.

The Territorial government are to be commended on having started in the good work of ditching in the district, and it is to be hoped that its purpose will continue, as the question of good roads has always been a burning one not only here, but all over the world.

A ferry at Clover Bar would be a great boon to all the settlers in that thickly populated settlement, saving many miles of travel to and from their nearest market.

It is to be hoped now that the government have purchased now quarters for the Northwest Mounted Police that the headquarters will be moved here shortly.

The question of waterworks and sewerage for Edmonton is now under consideration by the town council.

In closing, gentlemen, I again express my gratification for past honors, and am pleased to say, that to-day Edmonton has the largest membership of any board of trade in the Territories, which speaks well of its business men and shows that they are alive to the interests of the town and country.

Too much credit cannot be given to the council of the board, who during the past year, often at a great inconvenience to themselves, attended any meeting when called.

A good council is most necessary for the successful working of the board.

I have the honor to wish the board every success in the future, as it has had in the past, and to assure it that anything I can do to further its success will be cheerfully done.

The secretary read the following communication from P. A. Osborne, sub-collector of customs, showing the values of entries here during the past year:

Year	Duty Paid	Value of free entries
1901	$1038.38	$ 1473
January	1704.62	7801
February	1522.35	8213
March	1923.55	10819
April	1178.73	8562
May	865.08	5179
June	2022.45	7331
July	1863.66	8149
August	830.82	2242
September	1230.36	2325
October	1375.67	7713
November	2917.04	10097

Mr. McDougall expressed his desire of having the president's address printed and considered that the board was to be complimented on the work done during the year.

The opening up of the north is considered one of the most important movements affecting Edmonton.

The officers elected for the year were: K. W. MacKenzie, president; J. B. Mercer, vice-president; councillors: R. Lee, J. H. Garvey, W. Richards, P. Fisher, A. J. Anderson, A. B. Campbell, J. H. Morris, G. Manuel, C. W. Strathy, J. T. Blower.

F. P. Tims was re-appointed secretary at a salary of $250.

Moved by T. W. Lines, seconded by J. B. Mercer that the annual dues be raised from $5 to $10, the increase to go in force at the beginning of the ensuing year.

The meeting then adjourned.
